-versus-

State of Maharashtra
Police Station Officer,
Police Station, Korchi,
Tahsil : Korchi, District : Gadchiroli .. Respondent/Prosecution

(Passed on : 23rd March, 2026)

By this application, under section 483 of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 (BNSS), the applicant/accused has prayed for grant of bail in Crime No.22/2026 registered with the Police Station, Korchi, District : Gadchiroli, for the offences punishable under Sections 105, 125(a), 125(b), 281 of the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023 (BNS) and under Sections 184, 185, 134(A) of the Motor Vehicle Act, 1988 (M.V. Act).

2] I have heard Smt. A. I. Shekhani, the learned counsel for the applicant and Mr. Pradhan, the learned PP for the prosecution, in support of the application and say by the prosecution, respectively. Their contentions are dealt specifically as and when as required below.

3] With assistance of Mr. Pradhan, I have perused the investigation papers so far, which have been placed before me, only for my perusal.

4] Upon perusal of the first information report (FIR), it transpires, that four labours were travelling on a Tractor which was alongwith a Trolley. There was centering material in the Trolley. No doubt, travelling on a Tractor was itself a negligent act. But the allegations against the applicant are, that the Truck driven by him, gave a dash to the Trolley, that resulted into imbalance of the Trolley and also Tractor. Four persons came under the Tractor as it turned upside down. Two persons succumbed to the injuries. Two became seriously injured. The applicant was immediately arrested by the police. The contention of Smt. Shekhani, that the applicant himself appeared before the police, cannot be accepted at least at this stage. The applicant was arrested as he was driving the Truck which was in damaged condition and during the police checking. The allegations against the applicant are more serious, that he was found under influence of the liquor. Upon perusal of the medical papers, it transpires, that the applicant was found under influence of the liquor and he was unstable. The medical examination of the applicant took place immediately within a couple of hours. Hence, the act of the applicant was at least of culpable homicide not amounting to murder which is referable to knowledge. The said offence is punishable with imprisonment which may extend to 10 years. More aggravated is, that the applicant without shifting the injured to a hospital, ran away from the spot at least as per the FIR. Hence, at least at this stage, I am not inclined to allow the application. The investigation is still in progress as rightly contended by Mr. Pradhan.

That apart, possibility of absconding is also there. Thus, I proceed to pass the following order.

ORDER
