.. Non-applicant

Order Below Exh.13

(Passed on : 13th November 2025)

1] Perused the applicant and say. Heard both the sides at length. The applicant is an owner of the mobile. The investigation regarding the mobile is completed. There is no necessity to detain the mobile in police station. If it is detained, then there would be deterioration of the mobile. The accused has filed this application for supratnama. The accused will not take any objection for non-production of mobile by prosecution, as he is applying for possession of mobile. As the applicant is the owner of the mobile and investigation is completed regarding the mobile, I find no hurdle in releasing the mobile on supratnama. Hence, I am inclined to pass following order.

O R D E R

1. The application is hereby allowed.
2. The seized mobile be given to the accused/applicant on the supratnama of Rs.40,000/-.

,...2..

3. The accused shall produce the mobile as and when directed to do so.
4. The accused shall not sell or dispose of the mobile phone in any manner.
5. The accused shall not cause any changes in the mobile.
6. The accused shall bring the mobile to the Court at the time of evidence.
7. The accused shall not carry the mobile out of the State without permission.
8. The accused shall not use the mobile in any criminal activity.
9. The Investigating Officer to complete all the investigation regarding the mobile if anything is remaining.
10. The Investigating Officer can take the data and copy it in the instrument i.e. C.D., Floppy, Memory Card, Pen Drive etc.
11. The Investigating Officer shall hand over the mobile and take the receipt of the mobile before panchas. He shall draw the panchanama of handing over the mobile before panchas.
12. The application for supratnama stands disposed of and it shall be a part of the charge-sheet.
