ORDER BELOW EXH. 01(Passed on 30th October, 2025)

Perused the record. The application is filed under order 39, Rule 2-A of the Civil Procedure Code, 1908. The matter is pending for remaining cross-examination of applicant's witness no.1 since 20-06-2024. It appears that the applicant witness is absent since long. Today also, he is not present before the Court though called out repeatedly. No application is filed. The matter is pending on the same stage without any progress.

2. The matter is old. The learned counsel for the non-applicant is present and ready before the court to take the cross-examination of applicant's witness no.1. However, it is necessary to grant to the last chance to the applicant before discarding his evidence to finally adjudicate dispute and prevent multiplicity of proceedings. In light of this, I am constrained to pass the following order.

ORDER

1. The applicant's witness no.1 is directed to remain present on the next date without fail.
2. Failure would lead to passing of order whereby the evidence of applicant's witness no.1 would be discarded.
3. The non-applicant is directed to remain present before the Court to take cross-examination of applicant's witness no.1.

4. Both parties to note.
