Spl. POCSO Case No. 84/2023

State -v- Mallesh Yeladi

ORDER ON EXH. 20
(Passed on 14.05.2026)

Accused Mallesh Banayya Yeladi was released on bail. However, it appears that he did not furnish Surety. In Re Policy Strategy For Grant of Bail vs. Gaurav Agrawal, (2024, 10 SCC 685), Hon'ble Apex Court has held that in case under trial prisoner does not furnish surety, the Court may sue moto take up the case and consider whether bail conditions required modification. In the present case, accused Mallesh was directed to be released on execution of P.R. Bond of Rs.50,000/-. In my view, instead of Rs.50,000/-, he can be directed to furnish P.R. bond of Rs.25,000/- and one Surety like amount. Hence amount of bail bond required by order below application (Exhibit No.20) is modified and accused Mallesh is permitted to furnish P.R. bond of Rs.25,000/- and one Surety like amount. Rest of the conditions shall remain as they are.
