REFERENCE (IT) NO.14 OF 2018

BETWEEN

Joint Action Committee of Textile
Traders Association

...First Party Company

AND

Mumbai Gumasta Union

...Second Party Union

CORAM: S.G. THUBE, PRESIDING OFFICER

ORDER BELOW EXH.C-31

(Passed on : 30.11.2022)

1) Heard both sides Learned Counsels and perused the application vide Exh. C-31 and say filed by Second Party Union on the said application. This application is filed on behalf of First Party No.4 for setting-aside order of “no ws” with permission to file its written statement, on the grounds mentioned in application vide Exh. C-31. On the other hand, Second Party Union objected this application on the grounds mentioned in their say means submitted that the grounds which raised by First Party No.4 in its application for setting-aside “no ws” order are not genuine and proper. Thus, prays for rejection of application.

2) Thus, considering the application and say filed by the Second Party Union in the interest of justice and for settling real controversy between the parties of the proceeding, ‘no ws’ order which is passed against First Party No. 4 is hereby set-aside without any costs. Thus, this application is allowed.
