Ex-parte Ad-Interim Order Below Ex.U-2

(Date : 02nd June, 2025)

Heard learned advocate Mr. U. R. Jadhav for the complainant. This complaint is filed without issuing advance notice to the respondents. The complainant has filed an application for exemption from issuing notice at Exh. U-10. It is submitted that if notice in advance is issued to the respondents, the complainant will be removed forthwith due to which this complaint will become infructuous. Hence, considering the submissions, the notice is dispense with.

2. Considering the documents filed on record it appears that the complainant is being transferred as Forester, Bhose, Sangli Division to Dahiwadi, Satara Division vide order dtd. 30/05/2025.

According to complainant, the person who is transferred in his place i.e. respondent no. 3 is working in Sangli since last about 15 years and in order to accommodate him the complainant is subjected to transfer. From the documents filed at Exh. U-4/6 it can be seen that the respondent no. 3 is transferred from Social Forestry Range, Sangli to Bhoze Forest Division, Sangli. Hence, there is prima-facie substance in the submissions of the complainant and impugned order of transfer prima-facie smacks malafide on the part of respondents. Hence following order is passed :

Order

- (i) By this ex-parte ad-interim order, the respondents are hereby restrained from implementation and giving effect to the order of transfer of the complainant dtd. 30/05/2025 till next date.
- (ii) Issue show cause notice to the respondents as to why ad-interim order shall not be confirmed r/o 13/06/2025.

Sangli.

Date : 02nd June, 2025.
