

COMPLAINT (U.L.P.) NO.39/2022.

AD-INTERIM ORDER

(Passed on this 29th day of April, 2022)

- 1) Heard Advocate for the complainant. The complainant has an apprehension that since he has filed this particular complaint for relief of permanency, the respondent might terminate his services.
- 2) Respondents Advocate appeared and has sought time in the matter.
- 3) Considering the apprehension of the complainant and the facts and circumstances of this matter at hand, I think it is proper to grant an ad-interim order in favour of the complainant at this stage. Hence, ad-interim orders are granted in favour of the complainant. The respondent are directed to maintain status-quo with respect to the employment of the complainant till next i.e. 06/05/2022. Respondent is directed to file say.

Solapur.

Date :- 29/04/2022.

SGB/-.

(Shri. N. A. Malunjkar)

Member, Industrial Court, Solapur.