ORDER BELOW EXH. 01.

This is an application under section 372 of The Indian Succession Act, for grant of succession certificate. Heard Ld. counsel for the applicants. Perused the record.

02] In short, it is the contention of applicants that applicants are children of deceased Shaikh Rashid Shaikh Issa, who died on 08/03/2025 at Jamner, Tal.Jamner, Dist. Jalgaon. (In short "the deceased"). The wife and mother of deceased are also pre-deceased. Except applicants there are no other legal heirs to the deceased.

03] The deceased was having Saving account bearing no.3255230169 in the Central Bank of India, Branch - Jamner, Tq. Jamner, Dist. Jalgaon. At the time of death of the deceased an amount of Rs.19,273/- was laying in the said Saving account. The applicants had been to the Bank. But, the bank demanded Succession Certificate. Hence, the application.

04] In support of the application, the applicants filed copy of the death certificate of deceased at Exh.18, which proves his death. Identity of applicants is proved from the copies of their Aadhar Cards at Exh.14 and 15. The applicant no.2 deposed at Exh.13 that they are only legal heirs of the deceased. His evidence remained intact and unchallenged as despite of issuance of Paper Publication at Exh.21 and citation notices no one has taken any objection yet. Thus the evidence on record prima-facie proves that applicants are legal heirs of the deceased.

05] The applicants have produced bank account statements of the deceased at Exh.16. It shows that as of now an amount of Rs.19,273/- is laying in the saving account of the deceased. Applicants being legal heirs of the deceased are entitled to succeed the said amount. Hence, order.
