ORDER BELOW EXH.1

(Delivered on : 10.04.2026)

. The applicant/accused has preferred application under the provision of Section 482 of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 (hereinafter referred to as the “BNSS” for the sake of brevity), apprehending arrest in Crime No.76/2026 registered with Chandanzira police station under Sections 333, 351(2), 352 read with Section 3(5) of the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023 (hereinafter referred to as the “BNS” for the sake of brevity).

02. As per the applicant/accused, one Priti Singh lodged complaint on 26.02.2026, contending that since two years, she is residing separately from her husband with two children. Her husband is residing at Waranasi. On 16.01.2026 at around 00.15 hours when she was sleeping in her house with her children, four persons knocked the door. When she opened the door, they entered the house. On confrontation, co-accused Daulatkhan slapped informant. The other three persons including the applicant/accused, started abusing her. They pushed the children and threatened informant to leave Jalna or they will kill her. Hence, complaint is filed.

03. As per the applicant/accused, he is falsely implicated in the offence. The allegations against the applicant/accused are vague in nature. No specific overt act is made out against him. No injury is inflicted to the informant. Therefore, the provisions of section 333 of BNS are not applicable. There is delay of 41 days in filing the complaint, which is unexplained. Nothing is to be recovered at the hands of this applicant/accused. The applicant/accused is permanent resident of Jalna. The applicant/accused contends that he is ready to abide with terms and conditions of bail, if imposed on him.

04. The prosecution resisted the application by filing say at Exh.5. It is contended that the offence is serious in nature. The applicant/accused along with co-accused wrongfully entered the house of the informant, assaulted and threatened her. Investigation is in progress. As per the prosecution, in case applicant/accused is released on bail, he will abscond or threaten the witnesses. Hence, application is sought to be rejected.

05. Heard learned advocate Shri.K.A.Khan for the applicant/accused and the learned In-charge D.G.P. Shri.B.V. Ingle for the State. Perused the copy of FIR and police papers submitted by the prosecution.

06. The learned Counsel for the applicant/accused submitted that the delay caused in filing the FIR is not explained the co-accused is already released on bail.

07. From the reply of the prosecution and police papers it is seen that the investigation is almost completed. There is nothing to be recovered or discovered at the hands of this applicant/accused, for which, his custodial interrogation would be required. The apprehension of the prosecution can be taken care of by imposing stringent conditions on the applicant/accused while granting him bail. Hence, I pass the following order: -
