ORDER BELOW EXH.1

(Delivered on : 15.04.2026)

The applicants have preferred application under the provision of Section 482 of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 (hereinafter referred to as the "BNSS" for the sake of brevity), apprehending arrest in Crime No.90/2026 registered with Taluka Jalna police station under Sections 498-A, 323, 504, 506 read with Section 34 of the Indian Penal Code.

02. As per the applicants/accused, the informant is the wife of applicants/accused No.1 and daughter-in-law of applicants/accused No.2 and 3. The informant lodged complaint on 06.03.2026 contending that she got married with applicants/accused No.1 on 21.05.2023. For one month she was treated well by the applicants/accused, then the applicants/accused started harassing her.

They used to abuse and assault her. It was alleged that she used to speak with some one on phone. She was also harassed for not bringing any dowry and Rs.2,00,000/- were demanding for constructing house. The informant was driven out of the house. On 02.03.2024, when she went to the applicants, she was threatened to be killed. Hence, she filed with Bharosa Cell on 28.01.2026. However, there was no settlement and this complaint is filed.

03. As per the applicants/accused, they are falsely implicated in the offence. The informant was insisting applicant/accused No.1 to reside separately, which he refused and therefore the complaint is filed. There is delay in filing the complaint. The allegations are vague in nature. The applicants/accused are responsible citizens, having permanent residence. They are ready to abide by the terms and conditions of bail if imposed on them.

04. The prosecution resisted the application by filing say at Exh.04. It is contended that the offence is serious in nature. The informant was subjected to cruelty and ill-treatment by the applicants/accused on account of unlawful demand of Rs.2,00,000/-. They also harassed, abused and threatened to kill her. Investigation is in progress. Notice under Section 35(3) of BNSS is issued to the applicants/accused. The prosecution apprehends that in case the applicants/accused are released on bail, they will tamper the evidence and threaten the witnesses. Hence, the application is sought to be rejected.

05. Heard learned advocate Shri.P.G.Bankar for the applicants/accused and the learned A.P.P. Smt. J.B.Solanke for the State. Perused the copy FIR and papers submitted by the prosecution.

07. From the reply of prosecution and police papers, it is seen that the investigation is almost completed. Nothing is shown to be recovered or discovered at the hands of this applicants/accused for which their custodial interrogation would be required. The apprehension of the prosecution can be taken care of by imposing stringent conditions on the applicants/accused. Hence, the applicants/accused are entitled to be released on bail. With this, I pass the following order: -
