

ORDER BELOW EXHIBIT NO. 4

IN SPL. CASE NO.335/2024

[ State of Maharashtra Vs.Raju Narayan Kshirsagar ]

1. Applicant/accused Raju Narayan Kshirsagar is under trial, arrested for offence punishable u/sec.8(c), 20(b) (ii) of Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act, 1985 (Hereinafter referred as 'N.D.P.S. Act' for short). The charge sheet has been filed. He seeks release on bail. The application has been filed through Legal Aid.
2. Heard learned advocate Shri.Y.S.Kulkarni and the learned P.P Ingle for the State.
3. The report is dated 08.02.2024. It is alleged that secret information was received that applicant was selling Ganja at Mauje Navha. The raid was conducted. The applicant was found at the house. He declined to take personal search by the police staff. At the house of the applicant 2 kg 088 grams Ganja was found valued of Rs.20,880/-. After investigation, charge sheet has been filed.

Previous bail application No.139/2024 was not pressed on 26.02.2024 by the applicant.

4. This is first bail application filed after filing of the charge sheet. The quantity involved is less than commercial quantity. The trial will take time. The applicant is ready to furnish bail. Considering these aspects and the quantity of Ganja involved, I find that applicant can be granted bail pending trial. Hence, following order:
