ORDER BELOW EXH.01

(Passed on 11.06.2026)

1] This is an application under Bombay Regulations VIII of 1827, for the grant of Heirship Certificate in relation to death of Ankush Patilba Tangade.

Brief contention of applicants is as under:-

2] Applicant no.1 is wife, applicant nos. 2 and 3 are sons, applicant no. 4 is daughter and applicant no. 5 is mother of deceased Ankush Patilba Tangade. Deceased Ankush Patilba Tangade died on 18.04.2024. After death of Ankush Patilba Tangade only applicants are the heirs of Ankush Patilba Tangade. Hence, the applicants sought, the "Heirship Certificate" mere as a recognition. To fortify the contentions of application, affidavit of applicants and certain documents are filed.

3] After receipt of application, proclamation was issued, so as to call objections, if any, for grant of Heirship Certificate to applicants. Proclamation Exh.19, was published in daily newspaper "Dainik Punyanagari" of dated 28.03.2026. However, even after the lapse of the prescribed period, nobody appeared and raised any sort of objections. Thus, matter was posted for evidence.

4] Applicants have adduced their evidence at Exh.10. Besides this, they have filed certain documents to fortify their version. Original heirship certificate issued by Gram Panchayat Wadod Tangda at Exh. 11, verified copy of death certificate of deceased Ankush Patilba Tangade at Exh. 12, verified copies of Aadhar cards of applicants at Exh.14 to 18. Similarly, in support of their evidence, Shrirang Dhannu Nikam has given affidavit, which is listed at Exh. No. 20. Also, the applicant has closed their evidence vide purshis Exh.21.

5] It reveals from evidence of applicants that, Ankush Patilba Tangade died on 18.04.2024 this fact is duly fortified by copies of death certificates of Ankush Tangade. As nobody has raised any objection even after publication of proclamation, the version of applicant has gone unshattered.

6] As per Section 134 of Evidence Act, “no particular number of witnesses are required for proving any fact”. The evidence of sole applicant witness has gone uncontroverted and unchallenged. It is free from any discrepancies. Therefore, I have no hesitation to place reliance upon the same and conclude that, applicants are the only heirs of deceased. As per clause 7 of Bombay Regulation VIII of 1827, “the granting of certificate under it shall not finally determine, nor injure the right of any person and the Certificate shall be annulled by the Zilla Court, upon the proof that another person has preferable right.”

7] Considering the unchallenged testimony of applicants and documents filed on record, it is crystal clear that, applicants are entitled for Heirship Certificate. Under such circumstances, I think it just and proper to issue Heirship Certificate in the name of applicants. Hence, I pass following order-

ORDER

1. Application is allowed.
2. Issue Heirship Certificate in the name of applicants as the recognized heirs of deceased Ankush Patilba Tangade R/o. Wadod Tangada Tq. Bhokardan Dist. Jalna as per rules.
3. This certificate shall not be used for any other purpose.
