ORDER BELOW EXH.01

(Passed on 09.04.2026)

1] This is an application under section 372 of Indian Succession Act, 1925 for the grant of Succession Certificate in relation to death of Sainath Sanjay Sahane.

Brief contention of applicants is as under:-

2] Deceased Sainath Sanjay Sahane is husband of applicant nos.1, father of applicant no.2 and son of applicant no.3. The deceased Sainath Sanjay Sahane died on 13.11.2025. After his death only applicants are the heirs of Sainath Sanjay Sahane. Deceased Sainath Sanjay Sahane drawn Life Insurance Policy no. 988324441, after his demise amount of Rs. 2,81,000/- credited on said policy, therefore to withdraw said amount applicants sought, the "Succession Certificate" mere as a recognition. To fortify the contentions of application, affidavit of applicants and certain documents are filed.

3] After receipt of application, proclamation was issued, so as to call objections, if any, for grant of Succession Certificate to applicants. Proclamation Exh.15, was published in daily newspaper "Dainik Punyanagari" of dated 21.02.2026. However, even after the lapse of the prescribed period, nobody appeared and raised any sort of objections. Thus, matter was posted for evidence.

4] Applicants have adduced their evidence at Exh.07. Besides this, they have filed certain documents to fortify their version. Verified copies of Adharcards are at Exh.11 to 13, copy of death certificate of deceased Sainath Sanjay Sahane at Exh.10. They have further produced claim amount certificate at Exh.14 and closed their evidence vide purshis

Exh.17. Heard S. M. Sable, learned advocate for applicants.

5] It reveals from evidence of applicants that, Sainath Sanjay Sahane died on 13.11.2025. This fact is duly fortified by copy of death certificate of Sainath Sanjay Sahane. As nobody has raised any objection even after publication of proclamation, the version of applicants have gone un-shattered.

6] As per Section 134 of Evidence Act, “no particular number of witnesses are required for proving any fact”. The evidence of sole applicant witness has gone un-controverted and unchallenged. It is free from any discrepancies.

7] Considering the unchallenged testimony of applicants and documents filed on record, it is crystal clear that, applicants are entitled for Succession Certificate. Under such circumstances, I think it just and proper to issue Succession Certificate in the name of applicants. Hence, I pass following order-

ORDER

1. Application is allowed.
2. Issue Succession Certificate for the entitlement of amount of Rs.2,81,000/- concern with the L.I.C. policy no.988324441 in the name of applicants as provided under the Indian Succession Act, after payment of Court fees as applicable.
