Cri.M.A. No. 42/2026
(Raju Vs. State of Maharashtra)

ORDER BELOW EXH.1
(Decided on 30.03.2026)

Present application is filed by Raju Ganpat Kad, under Section 503 of Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, for interim custody of vehicle as well as trolley(trailer) seized in Cr.No.114/2026 registered at Bhokardan police station. Seized tractor bears following description:-

Model Name	-	International Tractors Ltd. DI-745 iii HDM
Registration No.	-	MH 21 BV 0014
Chasis No.	-	JZCSR1090330S3
Engine No.	-	3105ELU14H108399F20

(Hereinafter referred as 'Said Vehicle')

2] It is contention of the applicant that, applicant is in need of said vehicle for his daily use. Without said vehicle he is suffering from irreparable loss. If said vehicle is kept in police station without use then its condition will deteriorate. Said vehicle is not in need for further investigation. Hence, he prayed to handover interim custody of said vehicle.

3] Say of A.P.P. and I.O. was called out. A.P.P. filed his say that, if property is returned to the applicant then he will again use the said property for illegal purpose. Investigation is yet to be completed. Therefore, he prayed to reject the application. I.O. filed his say on same footing at Exh.4.

4] Record reflects that the trolley seized in the present Cr.no.114/2026 is not registered with the respective authority. Along with Exh.3 the applicant produced one receipt showing the purchase of trolley in the name of the applicant. Therefore, to verify the said bill the notice was issued to I.O. Accordingly, I.O. filed his report at Exh.6 that, the applicant has purchased the said trolley from the vendor mentioned in receipt filed along with Exh.3.

5] Computerized copy of vehicle particular of the tractor produced along with Exh.3 shows that the said tractor is registered in the name of applicant. As on today except the applicant no one claimed the tractor as well as trailer before this court. Report filed by I.O. at Exh.6, Vehicle particular filed along with Exh.3 and verified copy of receipt produced along with Exh.3 further substantiate the claim of the applicant as a rightful possessor of the tractor as well as trolley(trailer).

6] Hon'ble Supreme Court laid down the ratio in Sunderbhai Ambalal Dessai v. State of Gujarat(2002) 10 SCC 283 'Owner of the article would not suffer because of its remaining unused or by its misappropriation. It is also laid down that before handing over possession of the article proper panchanama is to be prepared.'

7] Regarding non registration of the said trailer I would like to mention here the principle laid down by Hon'ble Bombay High Court in the case of Parmeshwar Dudhe Vs. The State of Maharashtra Cri.Writ Petition no.841/2019. In the said case the seized tractor was not registered while handing over the custody of said unregistered tractor Hon'ble Bombay High Court held that, "If such is the state of affairs, when the prosecution itself is alleging that is the owner of the tractor which has been seized, it can very well be return to him instead of allowing it to be rusted further in the premises of the police station. Even the prosecutor was unable to reply as to what the prosecution would now do with the tractor if it was not to be returned to the petitioner. It is under such a circumstances that without getting swayed away by the allegations and counter allegations about manipulation in respect of the chasis number and the engine number one will have to permit it to be returned to the petitioner, of course subject to suitable conditions so as to enable him to convert it into road worthy condition so that thereafter it can be duly registered and insured.” In the said case Hon’ble Bombay High Court handed over the interim custody of tractor on the following conditions, “He undertakes to not to use the tractor unless and until it is duly insured and registered under the Motor Vehicles Act. Secondly, not to use it except for agricultural operations. Thirdly, execute personal bond.”

8] As mentioned above in the present case trolley(trailer) is an unregistered vehicle. Applicant furnishes an affidavit at Exh.8 that he will get the said trolley registered once released. No one except applicant claimed the said trolley(trailer). Therefore, considering ratio laid down by Hon’ble Bombay High Court in the case of Parmeshwar (supra), report filed by I.O. at Exh.6 and affidavit furnished at Exh.5 by imposing stringent conditions upon the applicant trolley(trailer) also needs to be released on the basis of interim custody. Accordingly, I pass following order –
