ORDER BELOW EXH.01

(Passed on 09.04.2026)

1] This is an application under Bombay Regulations VIII of 1827, for the grant of Heirship Certificate in relation to death of Ranabai Bandu Raut.

Brief contention of applicants is as under:-

2] Deceased Ranabai Bandu Raut is mother of applicant nos.1 and 2 and respondent nos.1 to 4. The deceased Ranabai Bandu Raut died on 05.01.2019. After her death only applicants and respondents are the heirs of Ranabai Bandu Raut. Hence, the applicants and respondents sought, the “Heirship Certificate” mere as a recognition. To fortify the contentions of application, affidavit of applicants and certain documents are filed.

3] Despite giving opportunity respondents failed to appear before the Court. Hence, this application proceeded ex-parte against them.

4] After receipt of application, proclamation was issued, so as to call objections, if any, for grant of Heirship Certificate to applicants. Proclamation Exh.27, was published in daily newspaper “Dainik Punyanagari” of dated 26.07.2025. However, even after the lapse of the prescribed period, nobody appeared and raised any sort of objections. Thus, matter was posted for evidence.

5] Applicants have adduced their evidence at Exh.19. Besides this, they have filed certain documents to fortify their version. Verified copies of Adharcard are at Exh.26 & 26, copy of death certificate of deceased Ranabai Bandu Raut at Exh.22. They have also filed heirship certificate given by Grampanchayat Danapur at Exh.23 and closed their evidence vide purshis at Exh.29. Heard G. R. Wagh, learned advocate for applicants.

6] It reveals from evidence of applicants that, Ranabai Bandu Raut died on 05.01.2019. This fact is duly fortified by copy of death certificate of Ranabai Bandu Raut. As nobody has raised any objection even after publication of proclamation, the version of applicants has gone un-shattered.

7] As per Section 134 of Evidence Act, “no particular number of witnesses are required for proving any fact”. The evidence of sole applicant witness has gone un-controverted and unchallenged. It is free from any discrepancies. Therefore, I have no hesitation to place reliance upon the same and conclude that, applicants are the only heirs of deceased. As per clause 7 of Bombay Regulation VIII of 1827, “the granting of certificate under it shall not finally determine, nor injure the right of any person and the Certificate shall be annulled by the Zilla Court, upon the proof that another person has preferable right.”

8] Considering the unchallenged testimony of applicants and documents filed on record, it is crystal clear that, applicants are entitled for Heirship Certificate. Under such circumstances, I think it just and proper to issue Heirship Certificate in the name of applicants. Hence, I pass following order-

ORDER

1. Application is allowed.

2. Issue Heirship Certificate in the name of applicant nos. 1 and 2 and respondent nos.1 to 4 as the recognized heirs of deceased Ranabai Bandu Raut R/o. Danapur, Tq. Bhokardan, Dist. Jalna as per rules.
3. This certificate shall not be used for any other purpose.
