

RCS No.98/2013.
Order below Exh.20.

ORDER

This is an application filed by defendant for framing of preliminary issue. According to them, the suit properties acquired by the Government and no land of the plaintiff is left therefore, according to the Land Acquisition Act the suit is barred. Defendant prayed that, preliminary issue on the point of jurisdiction kindly be frame. Plaintiff resisted the application. According to the defendant, preliminary issue has to be frame as suit properties acquired and plaintiff has no land in the suit property. However, no interim application is pending. Further, issues are already been framed by Ld. Predecessor. Merely, on the allegations of the defendant, it cannot be hold that, suit is barred by the Land Acquisition Act. I do not found any merit in the application. Hence, application is rejected.
