

SUIT NO. 1158/20

NIRMALA VS. LALIT KUMAR

29.01.2022

THROUGH CISCO WEBEX VIDEO CONFERENCING

Present: - Sh. Mohd. Danish, Ld. counsel for plaintiff.
Sh. Manish Bansal, Ld. counsel for defendant.

It is submitted by the defendant that he has still not yet received the legible copies of the documents annexed with the plaint. It is further submitted by the defendant that the plaintiff has mentioned in the list of documents that there is a copy of attorney, however, there is no such documents inside.

Also, the copies of the documents filed before the Court alongwith the plaint are not legible. It is submitted by the plaintiff that he does not have the original documents and hence could not file the legible copies. Plaintiff is directed to file the legible copies of these documents before the Court as well as to the defendant and if he cannot do so, let an affidavit be filed by the plaintiff regarding the same. After receiving the legible copies of the documents, the defendant is directed to file the WS within the stipulated time as per law.

Put up for reply on 17.05.2022.

RICHIKA TYAGI
C.J-02, West, THC, Delhi
29.01.2022