ORDER BELOW EXH.22

1] Present application is filed by defendants for permission to file their written statement.

2] It is contended that matter was referred for mediation. Therefore, defendants could not filed their written statement within time. Hence, they have prayed to allow the application. the application is opposed by the plaintiffs by filing say at its overleaf. Defendants failed to file written statement within time. Therefore, application be rejected.

3] Heard Ld. Advocates for respective parties. Perused application, say and record. As the suit is filed for perpetual injunction, valuable rights of defendant are involved in the suit. Admittedly, matter was referred for mediation. Moreover, reason assign appears to be justifiable. Therefore, I find that, present application deserves to be allowed in the interest of justice. Hence, for these reasons following order is passed:

ORDER

1] Application (Exh.22) is allowed.

2] Written statement of defendant is taken on record.
