5. Following points arise for my determination and I have recorded my findings against for the reasons given thereunder :-

Points	Findings
1. Whether the applicant is entitled to be released on bail ?	– Yes.
2. What order ?	– As per final order.

- REASONS -

As to point no.1 and 2 :-

6. Heard arguments of both sides. Learned counsel Mr. S. R. Shinde submitted that this accused is innocent. He is having no concern with alleged offence. He is implicated in this case on suspicion. The quantity found in possession is small quantity and not commercial quantity. The trial against accused will take its own time. He is having no criminal antecedents. He is not required to be detained in jail by way of punishment.

7. The learned counsel for the accused placed reliance on decision in case of Birbal Prasad @ Birbal Prasad Sah @ Birbal Prasad Sao @ Birbal Sah Vs. The State of Bihar – 2018 ALL MR (Cri) 2293 (S.C.) wherein the Hon'ble Apex Court observed that, “Quantity involved in this case is 14 kilograms of Ganja which is a non commercial quantity. Accused not involved in any other case. In such circumstances appellant should be released on bail pending trial.”

8. He further placed their reliance on decision in case of Jagan Parasram Chavan Vs. The State of Maharashtra, 2014 ALL MR (Cri) 4589 wherein Hon'ble Bombay High Court held that -

“The sessions court has refused bail by holding that there is bar of Section 37 of NDPS Act. As it is not commercial quantity this court hold that relief needs to be given.”

9. The learned counsel for the accused placed his reliance on decision in case of Govindprasad Amritlal Burman Vs. State of Maharashtra 2004 ALL MR (Cri) 635, wherein it is held by the Hon'ble Bombay High Court that -

“The quantity found with the applicant is less than commercial quantity. So there is no question of application of Section 37 of NDPS Act, having regard to the nature of the offence, I think that accused may be released on bail.”

10. As against this Learned APP Shri. Patole submitted that there is sufficient prima facie evidence of involvement of these accused in serious offence of possessing Narcotic drug. If he is released on bail there is possibility of fleeing the accused from justice. There is possibility of tampering prosecution evidence. There is possibility of repetition of crime. Considering nature of offence his application for bail may be rejected.

11. On hearing arguments of both sides I have gone through the report Exh. 29 and documents produced by the accused. From which it reveals that the quantity found in possession of accused No. 3 is 2 kilo 50 grams, The quantity of drug found in possession of accused No. 3 is not commercial quantity. Investigation is completed and charge sheet is filed. The prosecution has not bring on record criminal antecedents of this accused or involvement of this accused in any other case of similar nature. The trial against the accused will take its own time. There is no prima facie evidence in respect of conspiracy between all accused. Other accused are already released on bail. Hence, on the ground of parity he is entitled for bail. Considering all these aspects in the light of ratio laid down in cases cited supra relied on behalf of accused it is obvious that in such cases the accused is required to be released on bail and no bail can be denied to such accused merely on the ground that they would indulge in similar crime after release on bail, particularly when there are no criminal antecedents. Hence, considering the ratio laid down in cases cited supra relied on behalf of accused and above referred facts reflected in the recitals of FIR, seizure panchanama I am of the view that accused is entitled to release on bail. Accordingly, I answered point No. 1 in the affirmative and proceed to pass following order :
