

P.W.D.V.A.No. 05/2024

Minakshi Akshay Bhat
Vs.
Akshay Rangrao Bhat & Ors.

ORDER BELOW EXH. 21

1. The applicant along with her learned advocate is present before me today and applicant submitted the present withdrawal pursis in the present matter.

2. The applicant submitted that due to amicable settlement, she does not want to proceed with the present matter and wants to withdraw the same. Hence, applicant wants to withdraw the present matter. Applicant admits the contents of pursis (Exh.21) and her signature thereupon. I have verified the applicant. The applicant contended that she do not want to proceed with the matter and wants to withdraw the present matter due to amicable settlement. Moreover, learned advocate for the applicant also signed the pursis and admitted the fact of amicable settlement in the present matter. Hence, the pursis is read and recorded and necessary order passed below Exh. 1.

Kagal.
Date : 11/04/2026

(Pranita S. Patil)
Judicial Magistrate, First Class,
Kagal.