

ORDER BELOW EXH- 23.

Perused an application and say. Heard finally counsels for both sides with consent.

2. Defendant no.5 & 6 have filed this application for amendment of their W. S. for adding para 4-A and 5-A as prayed in the application. For the same they have assigned reason of non availability of material documents. They contended that, house property bearing no.57/2 at Karpewadi is one of joint family property of their family and plaintiff intentionally not arrayed the said property in present suit. These defendants having equal share therein. Hence, prayed to allow the same.

3. Converse plaintiff opposed the same and submitted that, the area given by defendants of house property no.57/2 is altogether different than assessment record. Hence, prayed to reject the same.

4. This is suit for partition. Defendants claimed property which not arrayed by plaintiff in suit. They have every right to contest the suit and for the same take multiple defence. No prejudice cause to the plaintiff, if application allowed. Application filed before suit posted for hearing. Thus, to answer the above discussion, I pass following order,

ORDER

1. Application stands allowed, no order to cost.
2. Defendant no.5 & 6 are permitted to carried out necessary amendment in their W. S. as prayed in the application within fourteen days.

3. Parties to take note and proceed accordingly.
