ORDER

The accused has voluntarily pleaded guilty to the charge of offence leveled against him punishable under Sections 130 (1) r/w 177 of the Motor Vehicle Act. Despite of giving his instruction and consequence of pleading guilt he voluntarily firmed with his decision. Considering his voluntariness I accept the plea of guilty of the accused.

2. Heard accused on the point of sentence. A. P. P. prayed to impose punishment as per rule. Per contra accused prayed for leniency by imposing minimum fine only. He submitted that, he is doing private job and his financial condition is not sound to attend every date of court proceeding. No previous antecedents against accused. Further, though fix fine amount prescribed by the act, however, no where restrained to imposed minimum fine. As per contents of report, no further serious offence invited by Act of accused. Accused is doing private job. In such circumstances, it is not justifiable to imposed maximum fine amount imposed by the Act.

3. Further, accused settled his case. Definitely it would save the time of court and reduce burden of pending cases. Thus, considering the above discussion along with voluntarily willingness of accused lenient view need to be taken. Hence, in result I proceed to pass following order,

ORDER

1. Accused is hereby convicted under Section 275 of the Bhartiya Nagrik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 on pleading guilty for offence Sections 130 (1) r/w 177 of the Motor Vehicle Act.
2. Accused is sentenced to pay fine of Rs. 500/- (in words Rs. Five Hundred only) for the offence punishable U/Sec.130 (1) r/w 177 of Motor Vehicle Act and in default to pay fine he shall undergo 1 day simple imprisonment.
