

CS no. 343/2025

Rohini Malhotra vs Rachana Wadhwa

19.07.2025

Present: Sh. Avinash Lakhanpal, Ld. counsel for plaintiff

Present suit is filed by the plaintiff seeking recovery of diamond studded gold articles value Rs.31,60,000/- from the defendants. As per the averments made in the plaint, plaintiff herein is sister in law of defendant no. 1.

It is further stated that the plaintiff handed over jewellery article to defendant no. 1 near Sangam Cinema, RK Puram, in April 2022, with promise that same shall be return on 08.07.2022.

It is further stated that despite request from the plaintiff, the said article was never returned. The plaintiff by way of present suit has further alleged that when the said article were demanded back, it was informed by defendant no. 1 that same has to be brought by defendant no. 2, 3 and 4, when they were scheduled to come back to Delhi.

I have perused the record.

From the bare perusal of record it is clear that the plaintiff herein has alleged to handed over the jewellery articles to defendant no. 1 only and not to other defendants.

At this stage, Ld. counsel for the plaintiff states that other defendants be also summoned.

At this stage, from the perusal of record this court is of view that primarily there is no cause of action against the other defendants, however, the plaintiff shall be at liberty to argue/clarify with regard to the same.

Let summon be issued on defendant no. 1 on filing of PF and RC returnable for 11.09.2025.

(Anubhav Jain)
District Judge -05, NDD,
PHC/ND/19.07.2025