

Spl.(ACB) Case No.05/2021

State Vs. Sunil

Exh. No. 39

Further Chief-Examination of Witness No.1 by A.G.P. Shri. V.V. Deshpande - Resumed on Oath.

3. After lodging complaint with ACB Latur, Shri. Bedre called two panch witnesses. The panch witness Sonwane and Khandale came to the office. It was decided that my complaint be verified. Shri. Bedre introduced me to both the panchas. Shri. Bedre asked me to make a phone call to the accused. Thereafter, I made a phone call to the accused. The accused told me that, he was on duty at Hipparsoga and that he will be coming to Hasegavwadi square between 2.00 to 3.00 p.m. Thereafter, I, Shri. Bedre, police officials and two panch witnesses went to Budhoda road. When we were there I received a phone call from accused. Thereafter, Shri. Bedre put a voice recorded around my neck. Thereafter, I and panch witness Sonwane went to Hasegavwadi square. The accused came there. Accused asked me whether I brought the money. I told accused that, I did not bring the money. I told accused that the money is kept with my wife at home. The accused told me that, whether money poke in his pocket, I should have come with the money. I asked accused whether I should bring the money. The accused told me that, he did not want money and asked me to keep the money at home, and that he will take the money afterwards. Thereafter, I and panch witness Sonwane returned to Shri. Bedre. Shri. Bedre asked me to make a phone call to the accused. My talk with accused was recorded on the phone.

4. On the same day Shri. Bedre took six currency notes of five hundred each from me. Powder was applied on the said currency notes. Those currency notes were shown to me by creating darkness in the jeep. In the dark green colour was clearly visible on those currency notes.

5. I do not remember what happen further. The accused is present before the court. I can identify him. If I am shown the said currency notes, I will not be able to identify them. If the recorded audio conversation between me and accused is played before me I may identify the voices.

The conversation clip between accused and complaint is not deposited by the prosecution in court hence, further examination-in chief is deferred till next date.
