

CNR.No. MHLA010015472017

M.A.C.P. No. 112/2017
Maruti Gurusidhappa Kshirsagar Vs.
Shiprasad Sangram Chakure

ORDER BELOW EXH. 60

Claimant has filed present application to issue summons to Dr. Gulve as said witness informed him today's date is not convenient to him to remain present before the court. Ld. advocate for insurance company submits that, matter is old one, claimant failed to examine witness though sufficient opportunities came to be granted and hence application may be rejected.

Record indicates that, matter is pending since 2017, last witness came to be examined on 14/03/2024 and on last date witness summons to Dr. Gulve came to be issued. It is pertinent to note that after issuing of summons, it is a duty of claimant to secure presence of witness and summons cannot be issued repeatedly, as per choice of claimant, particularly in old matters. No reason appears to re-issue the summons, but application is allowed in the interest of justice with direction that, claimant will ensure the presence of witness on next date without fail, otherwise no further date will be given. Advocate of claimant is directed to take note of present order.
