

ORDER BELOW EXH.15

1. The present application is filed on 25-07-2023 by respondent Nos.1 and 2 seeking further time to file reply and W.S. The present respondents have appeared in said matter on 07-01-2023. The matter is thereafter adjourned time to time till 25-07-2023 but the written statement was filed on 25-07-2023. Respondent Nos.1 and 2 filed present application seeking time to file written statement. The application is objected by claimants submitting that period prescribed to file written statement is already expired and sufficient time is given so he prayed to reject the application.

2. Admittedly, the respondents have admitted on 07-01-2023 more than 7 months have passed. Though the present application was kept for filing W.S. on today, the respondents ought to have file the written statement today on itself however neither written statement is filed nor any application is filed. In view of this and as sufficient time is already granted to them, the application deserves to be rejected and hence order.

ORDER

Application is hereby rejected.
