ORDER BELOW EXH.1

This is a suit for partition and separate possession. The suit is pending for argument since 09/06/2026. The parties failed to argue despite sufficient opportunity. Therefore, on 09/06/2026 the suit is kept for dismissal order. Meanwhile, the matter is adjourned more than 7 times, but no one appeared and proceed with the suit. Today also neither plaintiffs nor their advocate are present before the Court despite repeated calls. The conduct of the parties shows that they have lost interest from the present proceeding. Considering age of the suit, I do not find any reason to keep the suit pending. Hence, I pass following order;

ORDER

1. Suit stands dismissed in default for want of prosecution.
