ORDER BELOW EXH.1 IN CIVIL MISC. APPLICATION
NO.955/2026
(Vandana and others Vs. Nil)

This application is presented by the applicant for issuance of heirship certificate vide Rule 1 and 2 of Bombay Regulation Act, 1827.

2. It is submitted by the applicants that, Suryakant Keraba Chamwad died on 20/09/2025 at Udgir, Tal. Udgir, Dist. Latur leaving behind person mentioned in the application. Also mother of the deceased namely Indarbai Keraba Chamwad died on 23/09/2016. The applicants are the only legal heirs of the deceased Suryakant Keraba Chamwad. Hence, applicants have filed present application and prayed to issue the certificate in their name.

3. After presentation of this application, publication came to be issued in daily newspaper “Rajsatta” on 26/11/2025 filed at Exh.12. However, despite of lapse of prescribed time, nobody appeared and raised objection to it till the date.

4. Perused the record. Heard Learned Advocate for the applicant. Following points arise for my determination to which I record my findings with reasons as under:

Sr.	Point	Findings
-----	-------	----------

No.
1.	Whether the applicants are entitled for grant of heirship certificate, as prayed ?	Affirmative.
2.	What order ?	As per final order.

REASONS

As to points No.1 & 2:

4. In support of application, applicant No.2 Kiran Suryakant Chamwad has filed affidavit in lieu of examination-in-chief at Exh.13 and reiterated the contention in the application. Applicants have filed photo copy of death certificate of deceased Suryakant Keraba Chamwad. From the evidence on record, it is clear that, Suryakant Keraba Chamwad is no more.

5. The Hon'ble Bombay High Court in case of Ganpati Vinayak Achwal in Writ Petition No.2177 of 2014 has held that, an heirship certificate does not bestow the status of an heir upon a person. Grant of such certificate is only formal recognition of his existing status as an heirs. In present case, relation between the deceased and the applicants is not in dispute as nobody appeared and raised objection to the application. So, their contention is that, the applicants are the only legal heirs of deceased Suryakant Keraba Chamwad remain unchallenged and unshattered. There is nothing on record to show anything contrary to the application. Therefore, considering all these aspects, there appears merit in the application. Hence, considering all the discussion together, I answer point No.1 in affirmative and in answer to point No.2 pass the following order.

ORDER

1. Application is allowed.
2. Issue Heirship Certificate in the name of applicants showing them as legal heirs of deceased Suryakant Keraba Chamwad on payment of requisite Court fees.
3. Court fees shall be payable as per Article XII of Maharashtra Court Fee Act.
4. Granting of this Heirship certificate shall not affect title of the property of the deceased.
5. The applicants are directed to furnish full and true inventory of all the property/credits received by them under this certificate within six months. A note to that effect be made in the certificate as per provision contain in Chapter XIV Para 312 of the Civil Manual.
