

RITIKA RAWAT Vs. ONWAYY CARGO PVT LTD

09.03.2026

Present: Sh. Kapil Balhara, Ld. proxy counsel for plaintiff through VC.
Ms. Pratiksha, Ld. proxy counsel for defendants.

Ld counsel for the defendants submits that the application under order VII rule 11 CPC has been filed mainly two grounds:

1. The plaintiff has no cause of action to file the present suit.

2. The contract between the parties is determinable and damages cannot be ascertained as per Section 14 (C) of Specific Relief Act R/w 41 (E) of Specific Relief Act.

Ld counsel for the defendant submits that the plaintiff asked for leaves during the probation period and the said leaves and maternity benefits are not allowed as per contract between the parties.

Ld counsel for the plaintiff seeks an adjournment for addressing arguments on the abovesaid application, on the ground that main counsel is not available.

At this stage, Ld counsels for the parties has been asked regarding possibility of settlement between the parties and they agreed for sending the matter to Mediation Cell.

Mediation Form filled.

In view of the abovesaid submissions, the matter is referred to Mediation Cell in Nation Drive for Mediation 2.0 for exploring the possibility of settlement between the parties.

Both the parties are directed to appear before Mediation Cell on 24.03.2026 at 12.00 Noon.

Put up on 06.05.2026 for awaiting settlement or in the alternative for addressing further arguments, on behalf of the plaintiff, on the abovesaid application.
