

ORDER BELOW EXH. 156

Read application and say. Heard both the parties. The plaintiff opposed the application on the ground of delayed production. So far as this objection is concern the present documents are relating to the character of the witness Kiran Patil. Therefore, when the plaintiff filed the affidavit of Kiran Patil along with documents the defendants filed the documents during cross-examination. Therefore, it cannot be said that there is delay in production of documents. Hence, production is allowed.
