

ORDER BELOW EXH.13

1. The non-applicant has filed the present application praying that no say order passed against him be set aside and thereby he may be permitted to file his say by condoning the delay.

2. It is contended by the non-applicant that he was in and for his unavoidable reason he failed to file his say. Thus, no say order came to be passed against him. Therefore, he prayed for allowing the application.

3. Per contra, the applicant has filed her say behind the same application. She contending that the notice is served to non-applicant. He has knowledge of filing say. Thus, the application be rejected with costs.

4. I have heard the Ld. Advocates for the respective parties at length.

5. Perused the record, it appears that the present proceeding is filed under Section 125 of Cr.P.C. Non-applicant has served the summons and he appeared on 29/08/2024 by filing his vakalatnama at Exh.06. He has given opportunity to file his say till 15.01.2025. He failed to file his say within limitation. Hence no say order passed against him on 15.01.2025. The applicant adduced her chief examination on 04.02.2025. Now, the matter is posted for further evidence of applicant. Then, this application is put up by the non-applicant. The record discloses that the non-applicant has given sufficient time and opportunity to file his say. The application is non supported by any documentary evidence. The unavoidable reason is not mentioned by the non-applicant. The non-applicants failed to file his say within stipulated period. Hence, no say order passed and step by step the matter is posted for further evidence of applicant. If the application is rejected then non-applicant definitely will suffer irreparable loss as he will be deprived from putting his say, however, if application is allowed, then applicant will not suffer any loss except delay. Further, applicant get well opportunity to contest the application on its merit. Therefore, considering the reason mentioned in the application, it will be proper to allow the application subject to cost. Considering the stage of application on which this application is put up, definitely the applicant is suffered by the delay. Hence, It will be proper to allow this application subject to costs of Rs.1,000/-. Resultantly, I pass the following order;
