

ORDER BELOW EXH.01

Perused record. On meticulous perusal of the same it appears that matter is pending since more than two year. The applicant is repeatedly absent. Therefore, the matter is kept for dismissal order on 10/06/2026. Thereafter, today also complainant and his advocate are absent when called out. The present matter is fixed for dismissal order. On perusing roznama, it reveals that the complainant and its advocate are absent since long. In spite of sufficient opportunity the complainant failed to take steps in the matter. Today, the complainant is repeatedly called, but remained absent. Therefore, in view of action plan given by Hon'ble High Court and taking into consideration all the above circumstances, it is crystal clear that applicant is not interested to proceed with the case. However, the complainant is consistently absent. They failed to take any steps to proceed with the instant matter. The application is pending unnecessarily. In these circumstances, no purpose will be served by keeping the case pending. In the result, I pass the following order ;
