

Plaintiff no. 1 and 2 and defendant no. 1 and 2 are present. Advocate for plaintiff and defendants are present. After negotiations they filed compromise petition U/Or. 23 rule 3 of CPC reporting about the settlement. The contents of the compromise petition is read over explained to the parties who admit the contents. Both parties admitted the compromise in terms of application filed U/Or. 23 rule 3 of CPC. According to the compromise petition, parties have shared the suit properties. Defendant no. 1 has given up his right in favour of other parties. The contents of the compromise petition is admitted by the counsel for both sides and also parties. The said counsels are duly engaged counsels who are authorized to conduct the case on behalf of the parties including the power to enter into compromise. Parties have furnished copy of their Adhar cards and also photographs. Documents in are order. It appears that compromise is just fair and reasonable Hence we accept the compromise petition. Draw final decree as per the terms of the compromise petition.

Sd/-
Sr. C. J. Bailhongal.