

Exh.O-

Reference (IDA) No.49 Of 2023

CNR No. MHLC04000418-2023

Order Below Exh. C-2

Perused the application filed by first party No. 2 for setting aside 'Ex-parte' order dtd. 28/01/2025 passed against them and say filed by second party. It is matter of record that the first party failed to file their written statement despite giving sufficient opportunity and hence 'no written statement' order was passed against them. The first party filed this application seeking permission to file written statement on record by setting aside the order dated 28-01-2025. Though the reason stated in the application is not satisfactory, to decide reference on merit, it is necessary to grant opportunity to the first party to file its written statement on record. No prejudice will be caused to the second party if permission is granted to the first party to file written statement. Hence, the application filed by the first party deserves to be allowed and permission has to be granted to the first party to file written statement on record. In the result, I pass following order:

Order

1. The application is allowed.
2. 'No written statement' order dtd. 28/01/2025 passed against first party is set aside and the written statement filed today is taken on record.

Place : Thane
Date : 20/02/2026

(S.R. Bhor)
Presiding Office
Third Labour Court, Thane.

Exh.O-

Reference (IDA) No.49 Of 2023

CNR No. MHLC04000418-2023

Order Below Exh. C-4

Perused the application filed by first party No. 1 for setting aside 'Ex-parte' order dtd. 28/01/2025 passed against them and say filed by second party. It is matter of record that the first party failed to file their written statement despite giving sufficient opportunity and hence 'no written statement' order was passed against them. The first party filed this application seeking permission to file written statement on record by setting aside the order dated 28-01-2025. Though the reason stated in the application is not satisfactory, to decide reference on merit, it is necessary to grant opportunity to the first party to file its written statement on record. No prejudice will be caused to the second party if permission is granted to the first party to file written statement. Hence, the application filed by the first party deserves to be allowed and permission has to be granted to the first party to file written statement on record. In the result, I pass following order:

Order

1. The application is allowed.
2. 'No written statement' order dtd. 28/01/2025 passed against first party is set aside and the pursis filed at Exh. C-5 taken on record.

Place : Thane
Date : 20/02/2026

(S.R. Bhor)
Presiding Office
Third Labour Court, Thane.

Exh.O-

Reference (IDA) No.49 Of 2023

CNR No. MHLC04000418-2023

Order Below Exh. C-4

Perused the application filed by first party No. 1 for setting aside 'Ex-parte' order dtd. 28/01/2025 passed against them and say filed by second party. It is matter of record that the first party failed to file their written statement despite giving sufficient opportunity and hence 'no written statement' order was passed against them. The first party filed this application seeking permission to file written statement on record by setting aside the order dated 28-01-2025. Though the reason stated in the application is not satisfactory, to decide reference on merit, it is necessary to grant opportunity to the first party to file its written statement on record. No prejudice will be caused to the second party if permission is granted to the first party to file written statement. Hence, the application filed by the first party deserves to be allowed and permission has to be granted to the first party to file written statement on record. In the result, I pass following order:

Order

1. The application is allowed.
2. 'No written statement' order dtd. 28/01/2025 passed against first party is set aside and the pursis filed at Exh. C-5 taken on record.

Place : Thane
Date : 20/02/2026

(S.R. Bhor)
Presiding Office
Third Labour Court, Thane.

