Amritkumar Jain and Ors.

-: ORDER BELOW EXH. C-6 :-
(Passed on 29/08/2025)

The present application is filed by opponent No. 1 to set aside “No Written Statement ” order passed against him along with prayer to take written statement on record. The Applicant filed his say and raised strong objection.

2. Perused the application and say filed by the Applicant.

3. On careful perusal of record, it has been seen that opponent No. 1 appeared in present matter but as failed to file Written Statement the matter proceeded without his Written Statement vide order dtd. 20/06/2025 passed below Exh.U-1. Thereafter, opponent No. 1 has preferred present application which is strongly objected by the Applicant. However, considering reasons mentioned in application as well as considering important rights of litigating parties and in view to give opportunity to opponent No. 1 to contest the matter present application deserves to be allowed. While allowing the application inconvenience caused to the Applicant is also taken into consideration. Hence, the order :-
