

:: 1 ::      Reference (IDA) No. 84/2015

Shri. Yogesh Shivram Bagade Vs. Shri. Digambar Nivrutti
Chavan

-: ORDER BELOW EXH. C-4 :-
( Passed on 01/08/2025 )

The present application is filed by the first party to set aside "No Written Statement " order passed against him along with prayer to take written statement on record. The second party filed his say and raised strong objection.

2. Perused the application and say filed by the second party.
3. On careful perusal of record, it has been observed that the first party appeared in present matter but as failed to file Written Statement the matter proceeded without his Written Statement vide order dtd.13/06/2025 passed below Exh.O-1. Thereafter, the first party has preferred present application which is strongly objected by the second party. However, considering reasons mentioned in application as well as considering important rights of litigating parties and in view to give opportunity to the first party to contest the matter present application deserves to be allowed. While allowing the application inconvenience caused to the second party is also taken into consideration. Hence, the order :-

ORDER

Application is allowed subject to cost of Rs. 500/- payable to the second party.

Date : 01/08/2025
Place : Kolhapur.

(Madhura A. Mulik)
Presiding Officer,
Labour Court No.1, Kolhapur.