

BEFORE PRESIDING OFFICER, FIRST LABOUR COURT, PUNE

Application (IDA) No. 46 of 2024

(CNR No. MHLC120006272024)

Shri. Balu Mahipati Shilamkar .... Applicant.

Vs.

1. Bharti Vidyapeeth & Ors. .... Opponents.

ORDER BELOW EXHIBIT C-4

(Passed on 19/03/2025)

1] Perused the application and say. It is submitted by the Opponents that they received notice of hearing in the present matter, but no documents filed by the Applicant were served upon them. Hence, the Applicant be directed to serve copy of the entire documents filed on record to them.

2] The Applicant filed his say below Exh. U-6 stating that the contents of the application are false. The Opponents have been provided with all the documents already, but they have not received the same. More than 90 days have passed and till date they have failed to file their written statement. Hence, the application be rejected and no written statement order be passed against them.

3] I have heard both the parties. They submitted as per their contentions.

4] I have gone through the materials on record. The Opponents were duly served as per postal acknowledgment filed at Exh. O-1. They appeared and filed their Vakalatnama and submitted that they have not received the documents. Thereafter, they have filed the present application. It appears that today the Applicant though have objected to the said application, however, has provided and supplied the copies of documents to the Opponents, the Opponents have signed and received those documents and the matter is posted for filing of written statement. Hence, since the Opponents have received the documents, the application stands disposed off.
