

Before Honble Labour Court - At Amangabad
Compl. No. 35-12025

Satyam Singh Bhasot Gurkhude

VP

S.T. Bead

The resp. MSTR Bead submits in under

That the complainant served notice in person to the office of respondent on 15/7/2025 and informed that he has filed complaint against show cause of dismissed dated and will pass for interim relief.

and to reply

Done

That as per the rule notice is to be given well in advance. Due to short time the say to stay application is not ready. Hence time may please be granted for filing the say.

Therefore it is prayed

Time may please be granted for filing the say and till then no any ad-interim may not be passed in favour of complainant.

A Obintz

Date: 16/7/2025

Amangabad

Advt. for Resp.

S.T. Bead

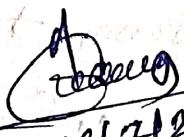

Hon'ble Sir,

That in the Present Matter, the Respondent's appeared in the matter, and seek time for say to the Interim Relief application.

That today the Complainant is still in Service with the Respondent's Corporation, if the Interim Relief is not granted the Respondent will dismissed the services of the Complainant. i.e. Statutory in respect of Service Prosecution

Hence an Interim Relief may kindly be granted for filing the say.

16/7/2025

Adv. A. H. Sulewase for complainant.

0

perd applicants simply had law & advice for both parties in mind stated & complied and complying claim respected I and the Complainant had only a future action agreed the service contributed the complainant would prejudice the right of complainant since complainant B is service as on to by Hence responded to directed with change the service station of the complainant still filing say Hence this service protection and agreed date responded still need date 16/7/2025