

ORDER PASSED BELOW EXHIBIT U-26 IN PGA CASE NO. 29/2021

This is an application filed by the applicant for carrying out amendment in the application.

02. Perused application and say.

03. Heard both sides.

04. The submission of the applicant in short is that the 7th pay commission was made applicable to the applicant, therefore, the last pay of the applicant change according to the new scale as per 7th pay commission. Accordingly, applicant wants make necessary changes in the application by way additions. As such the applicant has prayed for permission to carry out amendment in the application.

05. The non-applicants through their Ld. Advocate strongly opposed the application and in short submitted that the applicant is trying to fill up lacuna and amount is not properly calculated. Further submitted that the proposed amendment sought change the nature of the application. With these contentions, the respondents have prayed for rejection of the application.

06. It is pertinent to note that the present application for amendment has been filed when the matter was fixed for final argument of the respondent. The main application is filed for claiming gratuity amount. Though, the matter is pending for final argument of the respondents, the nature of amendment sought appears to be technical. The applicants proposed amendment is nothing but the technical amendment in the figures of the amount claimed which is purely technical. However, it is necessary to carry out such amendment for proper adjudication of the matter. The application deserves to be allowed. Hence, following order is passed.

ORDER
