1. This application is moved by accused Anandraj Milind Hiwale for bail. It is submitted by the accused that he is innocent and falsely implicated, no prima facie established, investigation is completed, further custody is not required, applicant is permanent resident of Mumbai with deep roots, no likelihood of tampering with evidence or witnesses. Lastly, prayed that bail may be granted to him on any terms and condition.

2. Learned A.P.P. opposed the application by filing say at back side of the application contending that he will misuse his liberty to abscond the said trial, he will hamper and tamper the prosecution evidence, the said accused is habitual in nature, it is highly possibility to commit same type of offence. I.O. also opposed the application by filing say (Exhibit- 3).

3. I heard the arguments on behalf of both sides. As per the investigation, it seems that the muddemal property has been recovered. So far as tampering of witnesses is concerned, strict conditions can be imposed on the accused. Considering the nature of crime, age of accused, I am inclined to release on bail. However, with certain condition that accused shall not tamper the witnesses and shall co-operate the investigation. Hence, following order :-
