C. C. NO: 4201SC/2022

O

Complainant and advocate present for trial. Complainant ready to face cross examination but accused and their advocate absent. No adjournment or exemption application filed on behalf of the accused. Proceeding shows that even accused have not replied to the notice given by complainant u/s 294 of Cr. P. code. Therefore there is reason to believe that accused have no defence for conducting cross examination. Hence, matter to proceed without cross examination of the Complainant by the accused.
