

IN THE COURT OF ADDITIONAL CHIEF METROPOLITAN MAGISTRATE
22nd COURT, ANDHERI, MUMBAI.
ORDER BELOW EXH.-1 A IN C.C. NO. 76/PW/2021

This was an information given by the I.O. to this Court that, two accused Avidh Gharat & Juzar Madraswala were released by them u/s. 169 of the Cr.P.C. My Ld. Predecessor had called say of A.P.P. The A.P.P. had filed the say to discharge the accused persons, however, this Court had by abundant precaution called on the say of the complainant. He remained present through pleader and has sought vide Exh-18 time to file protest petition. Today the complainant is present in person along with his pleader. He was examined by the Court in person. He told that he has voluntarily given his written reply vide Exh-20 and now he has no objection to discharge those two accused persons, which he personally protested against the discharge of the accused by the police u/s. 169 of the Cr.P.C. This Court is passing the following order as follows:-

ORDER

- 1 This Court has taken note that the accused Avidh Gharat & Juzar Madraswala have been released by the police u/s. 169 of the Cr.P.C. on the grounds that evidence is deficient against them and they are not forwarded to this Court for taking cognizance against them of the offence.
- 2 They stand discharged in that regard u/s. 169 of the Cr.P.C. They be released, if not required in any other crime/offence.
