It is contended by the applicant as per order of the Hon'ble High Court passed in Civil Appeal No.2001/2007, applicants have withdrawn 50% of the compensation amount and the remaining amount has been invested in the bank. So also, the deletion of the name of Applicant No.2 on account of her death, sought by the applicant has been allowed.
5. As per the report of Accounts Officer, the applicants have withdrawn 50% of the compensation amount and remaining amount has been invested in the bank. Moreover, there is no mention of enhanced amount deposited by the insurer.

6. Considering the report of Accounts Officer and Writ Section so also the fact that applicant no.2 has died and her name has been deleted during the pendency of the appeal before the Hon'ble High Court, there is no harm to allow the prayer of the applicant.
