

ORDER PASSED BELOW EXH. 42

1. The present application is filed by the applicants for production of documents and they have prayed to allow same.

2. The non-applicants objected to the production of document by filing their say overleaf of the application. The non-applicants have contended that, the production of document as belated stage cannot be allowed so they prayed to reject application.

3. Heard Ld. Advocates for both the parties. It is admitted position on record that, the matter is fixed for evidence of the non-applicants. Here in the present matter Ld. Advocate for the applicants contended that, the documents placed on record will be helpful to decide actual controversy between the parties. Considering submission of both parties it is required to mention that, if production of documents will be helpful for proper adjudication of matter then at belated stage the production of documents can be allowed. Here another aspect of the matter is that, it is posted for cross-examination of the non-applicants witness so applicant has right to file or produce documents on record for the purpose of cross-examination. Hence, following order is passed..
