Sessions Case No. 58/2025

State of Maharashtra

Vs.

Ajay Pralhad Sarse & Ors.4

IN THE COURT OF ADDL. SESSION JUDGE-3, NANDED AT NANDED.

ORDER BELOW EXH. 01

1. This matter pertains to offence punishable under Section 353, 332, 143, 147, 506 r.w. 149 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860 and pending since long for hearing before charge. It appears from the perusal of Rozanama that, matter has been posted for hearing before charge on 22.04.2025 and thereafter, matter has been adjourned to 14.07.2025 and 14.10.2025 from time to time, however, no attempt has been made by either the accused or the prosecution to complete stage of hearing before charge. Today also none present for the parties. It further appears that, on most of the dates, accused has filed his exemption application and same was granted/ allowed. The present matter is of 2025.

2. Today also, learned advocate for the accused Shri. M.R. Sharma is present. In my opinion, sufficient opportunity has been given to accused to hear on hearing before charge, but they have failed to avail the same. From perusal of the entire charge-sheet, statements of witnesses and documents filed with it, it appears that, there is sufficient material against the accused to frame the charge under section 353, 332, 143, 147, 506 r.w. 149 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860. Therefore, considering the above factual matrix, the hearing before charge is dispensed with and matter is posted for framing of charge against accused. Parties to take note.
