

COMMON ORDER BELOW EXH. NOS. 5 & 7 IN CRIMINAL APPEAL NO. 17/2026

(Raju Yadavrao Bhujbale -Vs- The State of Maharashtra and anr.)

The appellant/accused has filed application (Exh. 5) seeking suspension of sentence passed by Assistance Session Judge in the Sessions Case No. 45/2024 and application (Exh. 7) for bail.

2. Heard Ld. advocate for appellant. Gone through the record. It appears that the appellant is accused in Sessions Case No. 45/2024. The Ld. Court in the said case by the judgment and order dated 18.04.2026 has convicted the accused and sentenced to suffer SI for 6 months each under section 353 and 332 of the Indian Penal Code along with fine of Rs. 5,000/- under each section with default clause. The said Judgment and order is challenged in this appeal.

3. By these applications the appellant has sought suspension of the said order and bail. It seems that the accused was on bail throughout the trial.

4. In view of Section 389 of the Code of Criminal Procedure pending any appeal by convicted person the appellant court may order the execution of sentence appeal against be suspended and release him on bail. Hence, considering this provision and the fact that if the sentence is not suspended the very purpose of this appeal will be frustrated, it will be justified to allow this application.

5. The record shows that, the appellant/accused has already deposited total fine amount of Rs. 10,000/- before the Court. So, in view of above discussion, the sentence is suspended till decision of the appeal. In the meantime, the appellant be released on bail on furnishing personal bond of Rs.15,000/- with one surety in like amount. In above terms both the applications are allowed. Inform the concerned Court accordingly.

Nanded
Date : 21.05.2026

sd/-
(R.M. Shinde)
Additional Sessions Judge-2, Nanded.