Other Misc. Cri. Application
No.14/2025
Nagmani & Anr. Vs. State

ORDER BELOW EXH-01
(Dated : 09-06-2026)

The present application is seeking to condone the delay of 17 months 06 days in filing Revision Application against the order passed by the learned JMFC Degloor in RCC No.58/2024 dated 27-03-2024 of issuing process against the applicants, since they have committed an offence under Sections 420, 467 and 468 r/w. 34 of Indian Penal code.

02. The record discloses that though the order of issuing process was passed on 27-03-2024, in fact, the knowledge to the applicant of that order was given on dated 03-05-2025. It did not happen that when the order dated 27-02-2024 was passed, the applicants were present and they were heard by the learned Magistrate. In absence of that, the date of knowledge of the order is relevant for the purpose of counting the period of limitation of 90 days in filing the revision application. Since the date of knowledge of passing the order is 03-07-2025, bringing the application on 03-09-2025 was proper and justified. In fact, technically no delay has been caused in moving the present application. Therefore, the same, if any, is condoned by passing following order:
