Spl. Civil Suit No.13/2019

Megha Rajeshwar Bhandare Vs.
Chandrashekar Irappa Talnikar &
Ors.

ORDER BELOW EXH.70

Perused application. The defendant Nos.1 to 4 have preferred this application for consequential amendment in written statement. It is submitted that, proposed amendment is a reply to the amendment done by plaintiff in plaint. Thus, permission may kindly be granted. The plaintiff has submitted her no objection to proposed amendment. Other defendants neither submitted say nor remained present for hearing. The advocate for plaintiff is absent when called. The defendant No.2 is present. Heard party in person. Perused record of the suit. It appears that, the plaintiff had amended plaint vide order below Exh.47. By that amendment, she inserted claim clause and pleading in para of plaint. Thus, opportunity needs to be given to these defendants to reply said para by way of consequential amendment in written statement. Hence, considering above facts, I passed following order.

ORDER

1. Application is allowed.
2. The defendants do carried out amendment in written statement within 7 days of this order and to file amended written statement for record.

Date: 23.01.2021.
