ORDER BELOW EXH.1

Plaintiff and defendant submitted memo of settlement contending that, they have arrived at amicable settlement. Settlement deed bears thumb impressions of the parties which are identified by their respective counsels.

2] It is suit for injunction to prohibit defendant from alienation or interference into possession of plaintiff over suit plot. Defendant acknowledge by way of settlement that, he would not alienate or interfere into possession as above. He also agreed that, agreement of sale of suit plot was executed by him in favour of plaintiff and he has no hesitation to register name of plaintiff as owner of suit plot with concerned department. Hence to that effect, settlement deed is not acceptable. However versions as regard to settlement in respect of commitment of defendant for not to alienate suit plot or interfere into plaintiff's possession thereon is sustained. In the result suit disposed off as compromised in view of settlement deed [Exh.11] to the extend of prayer of injunction only. Decree be drawn accordingly.
