	Ananta Vs. Santosh and Others

ORDER BELOW EXH.16

The Decree Holder (DH) has filed an application seeking police aid for the execution of the possession warrant.

2] It is submitted by the DH that during the execution of the possession warrant by the bailiff, the Judgment Debtor (JD) interrupted the process and used tricky language, as mentioned in the bailiff's report. The DH asserts that police aid is necessary for the successful execution of the possession warrant and is willing to deposit the necessary charges for the same.

3] I have heard the learned advocate for the DH and perused the bailiff's report. It is evident from the report that the JD has interrupted the execution process. In order to ensure effective execution of the possession warrant and to avoid any further complications, police aid is deemed necessary. Therefore, it is ordered that:

ORDER

[1]	The application for grant of police aid is allowed.
[2]	The police are directed to assist the bailiff in the execution of the possession warrant. Inform Police accordingly.

[3]	The DH is directed to deposit the necessary charges for police aid as required.
	[Pronounced in open Court.]

ORDER BELOW EXH.16

The Decree Holder (DH) has filed an application for the issuance of a possession warrant.

2] It is submitted that the earlier possession warrant could not be executed due to the interruption caused by the Judgment Debtor (JD). The DH has prayed for the re-issuance of the possession warrant to ensure the execution of the decree in their favor.

3] Heard the learned advocate for the DH and perused the records, including the bailiff's report of the earlier execution attempt. It appears that the possession warrant was not executed due to the interruption by the JD. Considering the circumstances and to provide the DH with the fruits of the decree, it is necessary to re-issue the possession warrant. Therefore, it is ordered that:

ORDER

[1]	The application is allowed.
[2]	A fresh possession warrant shall be issued to the bailiff for execution.

[3]	The bailiff is directed to execute the possession warrant as per the law and submit a report to this court.
	[Pronounced in open Court.]
